Screenwriters - Good in a Room - An art film is typically a serious, independent film, aimed at a niche market rather than a mass market audience. It is "intended to be a serious, artistic work, often experimental and not designed for mass appeal," "made primarily for aesthetic reasons rather than commercial profit," and contain "unconventional or highly symbolic content." Art busy, your work might lead you into paths you might not expect.

Iâ€™ve always operated like the princes of Serendip, who went on quests not knowing what they would find. California Institute
